

1. Route Overview

- Start: Roseburg (I-5 exit)
 - End: Diamond Lake & Union Creek (near Crater Lake North Entrance)
 - Distance: ~80 miles along Highway 138, plus local side roads to campgrounds and falls
-

2. Key Waterfalls by Milepost (Roseburg → East)

Milepost	Waterfall	Trail & Difficulty
28 mi	Susan Creek Falls	¾ mile roundtrip, easy (Burnt from Fire but still a nice hike)
32 mi	Fall Creek Falls	~1 mile, moderate-difficult; 3–4 drops (Burnt from fire but nice)
~38 mi	Steamboat Falls	Easy access from campground road
58 mi	Toketee Falls	0.8 mile, moderate with stairs; twin-tiered, ~120 ft
60.5 mi	Watson Falls	0.8 mile, easy; 272 ft plunge
~65.9 mi	Whitehorse Falls	Very easy, 14 ft punch-bowl
69.5 mi	Clearwater Falls	Short, easy walk—30 ft tiered cascade

3. Camping & Lodging Stops

Steamboat Campground/Inns

- Near Susan Creek Falls, right off the North Umpqua River.
- Closest lodging: Steamboat Inn – cabins and riverside rooms.

Toketee & Lemolo Lakes

- Toketee Lake Campground – classic forest lakeside.
- Lemolo Lake – good for longer stays (fishing, kayaking). Near Diamond Lake.

Diamond Lake Resort & Campground

- Nestled beside Diamond Lake, base of Mt. Thielsen.
- Full amenities: cabins, tent/RV sites, café.

Union Creek Resort

- Near Crater Lake’s northwest entrance.
- Historic cabins (c.1920s), general store, and Beckie’s legendary pies.

